A PERSONAL TOUCH

EXEMPLARY SERVICE

The kindness of our staff and crew extends well beyond the warm smiles and chilled glass of Champagne that you're greeted with when you come aboard. As we set sail, our aim is that you feel at ease and welcomed to delight in every minute of your journey.

Explore each port of call guided by experienced destination professionals, returning to the comfort of a refreshed and replenished suite where our outstanding attendants and butlers ensure it's just as you prefer. Dining experiences in our speciality restaurants are a symphonic production of exquisite flavours and impeccable service with the direction of the maître d', the creativity and expertise of the chef, the precision of the sommelier and the rhythm of the waiting staff. Your captain and the navigational team pride themselves in delivering safe and smooth passage throughout your journey. And should you desire anything 'off the menu' during your travels, the concierge staff awaits, seeking to fulfil your every request.

Allow us to welcome you aboard and care for your every want and need. We look forward to creating your perfect onboard experience.

A TASTE OF TRAVEL

EXQUISITE CUISINE

New flavours and intoxicating aromas from far-off lands ignite our senses and enliven our spirits with new passions and a growing wanderlust. It's why we take so much pride in creating dining experiences that are so exquisite: nothing elevates travel like cuisine.

Sumptuous western dishes take on new meaning with the perfectly aged and prepared steaks of Prime 7. At Compass Rose, each appetiser — like the delicate and rich lobster bisque — offers a delightful array of tastes and textures, while every morning is warmed by the heavenly scent of freshly baked breads and pastries, crafted from the Planchot flour we source directly from France.

Allow the sublime and traditional flavourings of the Sole Grenobloise to transport you to the South of France from Chartreuse. Italy is just a meal away via the authentic dishes of Sette Mari at La Veranda, like the subtly enhanced flavours of the Pollo alla Cacciatora. Deliver an exotic touch to your evening with an array of dim sum like the mouth-watering Open-Top Pork and Shrimp Siu Mai with black truffle and yuzu sauce at Pacific Rim on Seven Seas Explorer®, Seven Seas Splendor® and beginning in 2023, Seven Seas Grandeur™.

The Pool Grill is the perfect spot to relax with friends after a full day of onshore adventures. Or, for a more private evening, enjoy the quiet and comfort of your own suite with a meal prepared to your liking through our 24-hour, in-suite dining service.

Whatever your diet and whatever your mood, our masterful culinary teams deliver unforgettable dining experiences with a wide array of delicious choices, including gluten-free offerings and 200 plant-based creations, which vary from first courses, entrees, sweets, sides and gourmet buffet selection, which change each day and feature across the fleet's exquisite restaurants, instead of being offered on a separate menu.

Dining is always whenever, wherever and with whomever you choose. And, there is never a charge for the gourmet cuisine accompanied by the exceptional wines and impeccable service.

"The warm welcome of the crew envelops you like a member of a very special family. From afternoon tea to elegant dinners, fine wines to gorgeous cocktail creations, all in an upscale, casual atmosphere – it's unforgettable. I'm looking forward to our next cruise."

Wherever you sail, Italy is always part of your itinerary with this restaurant's delicious dinner menu of authentic Italian specialties and fine wines. Each night La Veranda transforms into Sette Mari at La Veranda across our fleet.

PRIME 7

Class and style emanate from our elegant steak house through our elevated and definitive American fare. Perfectly aged and seared, prime New York strip and porterhouse steaks, succulent Alaskan king crab and tender filet mignon are all served with the perfect accompaniments... and this only touches upon the mouth-watering selections at Prime 7.

Reservations required.

CHARTREUSE

Savour classic French cuisine with a modern twist, aboard Seven Seas Grandeur™, Seven Seas Splendor®, Seven Seas Explorer®, Seven Seas Voyager® and Seven Seas Mariner®. Reservations required.

PACIFIC RIM

This dramatic speciality restaurant brings to life rich culinary traditions with a diverse array of wonderfully prepared Pan-Asian dishes for dinner aboard Seven Seas Grandeur™, Seven Seas Splendor® and Seven Seas Explorer®. The sushi-grade tuna tartare is always an exquisite entrance into a journey of eastern flavours, from the spice and bite of a sriracha-prepared tiger prawn to the warm and familiar flavours of our masterfully prepared Pad Thai.

Reservations required.

POOL GRILL

Despite the casual ambience, there is nothing simple about the fare, which ranges from delicious regional barbecues to the freshly grilled fish of the day. Delight in the perfect milkshake or an old-fashioned, hand-dipped ice cream treat and enjoy lunch or a casual dinner on the Pool Deck aboard each of our ships.

IN-SUITE DINING

Dine in the comfort of your suite on a range of appetisers, main courses and desserts, including sandwiches, burgers, pizzas, soups, salads and a variety of plant-based options, all available 24 hours a day. Each evening, dinnertime may be enjoyed with dishes made to taste from the expansive Compass Rose menu, graciously served in your suite, course by course.

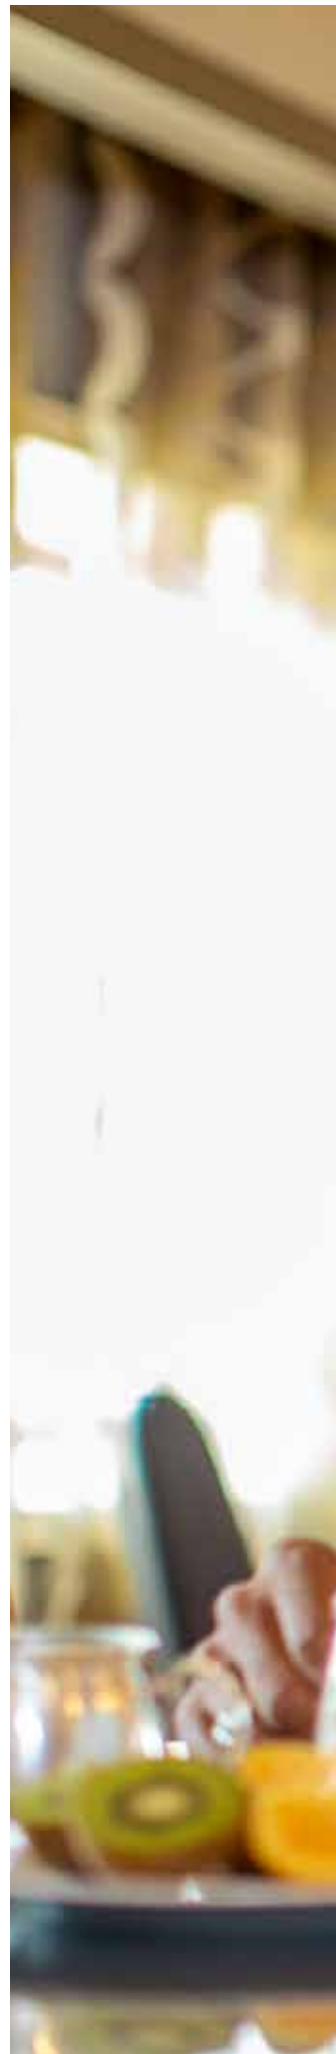

A BEAUTIFUL DAY

ONBOARD ACTIVITIES

Your time on board is just as precious as your time ashore, and whether you're in port or out to sea, each new day brings a host of opportunities.

The warming sun rises above the horizon, welcoming you to a new day on a morning walk around the deck. The Library is an ideal spot for enjoying a captivating book, while the Coffee Connection offers a perfect cappuccino and invites good conversation to be had with friends. The Sports and Pool Decks deliver an excellent afternoon escape, whether you're looking to recline and soak at the pool or challenge a fellow cruiser to a pickleball game or putting competition. The Fitness Centre has a range of state-of-the-art equipment and classes for all levels, while the restorative services and expert care at Serene Spa & Wellness™ are a relaxing way to rejuvenate and recover at the end of a full day.

Come and indulge in all the amenities and activities we offer, knowing there are options for every mood and inclination.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

EVENING ENTERTAINMENT

Aboard our luxurious ships, every evening is a night to remember. Dynamic theatrical presentations featuring our talented cast of high-calibre performers and guest entertainers celebrate a variety of entertainment productions designed to engage and delight, from live musical shows to homage-style performances of both classic and current hits.

Enjoy your preferred cocktail as you toast to the day's exploits with friends, and then head into the Casino for a spin of the roulette wheel and a chance to beat the house at blackjack. Step onto the dance floor and allow the Regent Signature Orchestra to move you through the night, or follow the warm sounds of a baby grand piano into a more relaxing atmosphere, ideal for a nightcap and late-night conversation.

You'll always find a friendly face and an available seat to enjoy with the attentive, personalised service and sophisticated ambience aboard each of our ships. Whether you're desiring a quiet evening under the stars or looking to enjoy the nightlife, we have the perfect option just for you.

"What really made every one of our trips unforgettable was the total Regent experience: the beautiful ships, the stimulating lectures, the outstanding cuisine, and most of all the fantastic crew who went above and beyond so many times, even searching the ship to find the last bottle of our favourite wine."

— Lisa G., Seven Seas Society® Silver Member

A UNIQUE ENGAGEMENT

ENRICHING OPPORTUNITIES

Thought-provoking talks and fascinating insights from special guests, as well as unique excursions and expertly designed classes, are just a few of the areas where we're constantly developing and refreshing Regent Enrichment programming to deliver the absolute best aboard every journey. The Speaker Series invites you to learn from knowledgeable presenters on each voyage, discovering more about the remarkable cultures and local wonders found in the different ports you visit. And on select voyages, special interest speakers, from guest scientists — like anthropologists and astronomers — to authors, filmmakers and historians, enlighten listeners as they share their years of experience and expertise through engaging presentations. On board Seven Seas Grandeur™, Seven Seas Splendor® and Seven Seas Explorer®, take advantage of the opportunity to expand your cooking skills with specially designed classes led by expert chefs in the amazing Culinary Arts Kitchen.

Our specially created Spotlight Voyages — curated and designed to further enhance your cruising enjoyment — take you into the worlds of journalism, education, the arts and entertainment in unique and engaging ways. Each Spotlight Voyage is intended to bring a particular area of interest into focus through captivating and enlightening events both on and off the ship. From our special connection with Public Broadcasting and their many influential personalities and talented creators, to other Spotlight Voyages with themes like wine, bridge, cuisine and music, there is never a moment to miss.

Whatever your area of interest, we invite you to expand your knowledge and repertoire of skills as you cruise the world with us.

CASTLE OF GOOD HOPE,
CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA

LAKE RETBA
DAKAR, SENEGAL

PINK LAKES, SUNNY DAYS

DAKAR, SENEGAL

Jutting out into the emerald Atlantic Ocean, Dakar is a kaleidoscopic jewel of western Africa. Delight in the bursts of colours from the brightly painted minibuses, vibrant fashion and the delicious foods of all hues and flavours. Adding to the rainbow is the fascinating rose-coloured Lake Retba, also called Pink Lake. You'll learn that the lake's unusual hue comes from an aquatic microorganism that is fed by the water's high salt content, which creates a visible ring along the shoreline. Senegal's culture of hospitality, known as teranga, will thrill you. Don't miss the opportunity to visit Kounoune village, where you can experience the indelible warmth of the locals.

FROM SEKONDI-TAKORADI, GHANA

TENERIFE
CANARY ISLANDS

A BIRDER'S PARADISE SEKONDI-TAKORADI, GHANA

The two towns of Sekondi-Takoradi are together known as the Twin City, but beyond the bustle of the metropolis, you will find the pristine natural beauty of Ghana's rainforests and wildlife at Kakum National Park. There, surrounded by a lush canopy, you can walk through trails and over suspension bridges to experience the solitude of the rainforest. It's also a premier site for birdwatchers, with more than 300 species, eight of which are of global conservation concern. Bring your binoculars and attempt to spot the white-throated bee-eater, the yellow-billed kite, the African hobby, the long-tailed cormorant, the plain-backed pipit, and the long-tailed nightjar.

THE RHYTHM OF DURBAN

DURBAN, SOUTH AFRICA

Hot, fragrant and bustling, Durban is a melting pot of cultures and characters. Its colonial roots run deep, evident in landmarks such as Durban Club and City Hall. Dotted amongst the old-world architecture is the flavour of Africa – the hustle of street vendors, the vibration of music and cars, and the constant movement of people. Venturing inland towards the Valley of a Thousand Hills, you start to see a glimpse of modern rural life and at PheZulu Safari Park some of the traditions of the Zulu people are revealed. Enjoy a display of singing and dancing, then browse through uniquely African souvenirs.

NEW FOR THE RECORD BOOKS

JEDDAH, SAUDI ARABIA

As the second-largest city in Saudi Arabia, Jeddah is home to a variety of amazing museums and historical landmarks, but it is also famous for an astonishing number of Guinness World Records, including having the tallest lighthouse. History buffs will gravitate to the narrow medieval alleys of the old town (Al Balad), built from blocks of Red Sea coral. For a bit of shopping, wander the ancient stalls of the bustling Souq Al Alawi, the Kingdom's most extensive bazaar. People-watch along the Corniche, a seafront promenade lined with lush green landscaping, cafes, piers and iconic King Fahd's Fountain over a mixed-rice-and-meat-meal of kabsa, the national dish of Saudi Arabia.

A PLACE UNLIKE ANY OTHER

JUNEAU, ALASKA

Glacier-cut mountains line the water, and the powerful exhales of orcas break the tranquil surface. This sets the stage for an adventure in Juneau that will leave you yearning to return year after year, as you will never have the same wildlife encounter twice — whether a curious bald eagle circles the Pool Deck or you spot a bear lumbering down the shoreline. The only constants are the delicious flavours of this region, from thirst-quenching microbrews to freshly caught, wild Alaskan salmon grilled over an open fire. After a day filled with dog-sledding and glacier hiking, you will undoubtedly have a hearty appetite, and Juneau is just the place to satisfy you.

SPIRITUAL SHORES

KO SAMUI, THAILAND

A visit to temples on Ko Samui will give you a glimpse of real Thailand, and you have plenty to choose from. Ko Samui's most important is Wat Phra Yai with its 11m-tall golden Buddha statue perched atop a wide staircase decorated with dragons. For a more serene spiritual experience, join locals at the Plai Laem temple, with its towering white statue of Guanyin, a goddess who is believed to be the protector of all beings and a source of unconditional love. On either side of the Guanyin statue, you will find two halls that are adorned with murals and frescoes that depict Buddhist mythology.

MODERN WONDER

SHANGHAI, CHINA

Marvel at Shanghai's diverse urban landscape by ascending the Oriental Pearl Tower for a bird's-eye view of the city. Back on ground level, spend time on the riverfront called the Bund. As you gaze across the Huangpu River to a big-city skyline, it is hard to imagine that just a few decades ago there was hardly a building over 10 storeys in Shanghai. While the global economy has transformed the cityscape, you can still find history and culture. Enjoy a quiet moment in the 6th-century Yuyuan Garden, sample traditional pan-fried dumplings in the Old City and shop for popular souvenirs like yixing teapots.

HOME OF THE MAJESTIC CRANE

KUSHIRO, JAPAN

The Kushiro Marshland is where the graceful Japanese crane (or red-crowned crane) calls home. Considered sacred in Japan, this bird gets its name from what seems like a red cap on its head. Join the photographers that flock to this national park from all around the world to capture the perfect image of these beautiful birds. To learn more about this species, spend time at the Akan International Crane Centre, a museum dedicated to the crane's history and ecology.

THE BEST OF SUMMER

MIYAZAKI, JAPAN

With a tropical climate and picturesque landscape, experience an endless Japanese summer. Miyazaki offers many lovely surprises to uncover, beginning with the locally grown mango, known for its unique ruby red colour. Drive down the Nichinan coastline for great sun, sea and surfing plus a few ancient shrines for good measure, or travel inland to the misty mountains of Takachiho to hear legends of the birth of Japan. Visit the tiny island of Aoshima, facing the ocean and surrounded by lush foliage, the shrine offers a peaceful and beautiful setting. As you walk over the bridge, you'll see the unusual wavy rock formations that the locals call Devil's Washboard.

HIDDEN BEACHES

CORON, PHILIPPINES

The karst limestone formations and sparkling waters of Coron will enchant you. Find surreal photo opportunities across the island, but most especially at Kayangan Lake. The view from the hike is the most photographed location in all of Northern Palawan.

If you've always dreamed of diving, this is the perfect place to get certified. During your training, you can swim around untouched shipwrecks. While wreck dive sites and hidden lakes are what Coron is most known for, this tropical destination offers sparkling white beaches. Among the favourite shores are Beach 91, Banol Beach, Atuwayan Beach, and Smith Beach. Also close by are Malcapuya and Banana beaches.

DIVISION: NORTH & SOUTH

SEOUL, SOUTH KOREA

Take a sobering visit to this remnant of the cold war — the Demilitarised Zone which separates North and South Korea. Military personnel provide a briefing, then tour the museum for a deeper insight into the zone's history, and the current state of affairs. See 3rd Tunnel, the extensive underground route for mass relocation of soldiers in times of war, and stand at Dora Observatory which commands expansive views over North Korea and its propaganda village. Driving along Unification Road, the main thoroughfare between North and South, you pass Freedom Bridge, the only route to liberty after the Korean War.

GATEWAY TO THE SACRED

SURABAYA, INDONESIA

Immerse yourself in the history of east Java at Trowulan Mojekerto, the former capital of the kingdom. It is the only site in Indonesia from the Hindu-Buddha classical age that ended in the early 16th century. While browsing excavated artefacts in the Trowulan Museum, you can expect to see reliefs of deities, water spouts shaped like human figures, ancient coins and carved pedestals. You will also see the remains of the 14th-century Bajang Ratu gateway, which stands in the nearby hamlet of Kraton. Built of red brick and volcanic stone, the gateway was once connected to a wall that protected a sacred building.

THE GRAND CANAL

SAPPORO, JAPAN

Otaru is a small harbour city, about half an hour north-west of Sapporo by train. But you don't have to worry about schedules or transfer stations because your ship will bring you within steps of its beautifully preserved canal area. The canal was a central part of the city's busy port in the first half of the 20th century, then beautifully restored in the 1980s. The old warehouses and former office buildings of the shipping and trade companies were transformed into museums, shops and restaurants, preserving Otaru's character. For a different perspective, take a canal cruise hosted by vivacious boat captains that aim to entertain.

EMU VALLEY RHODODENDRON GARDEN

BOTANIC BEAUTY

BURNIE, AUSTRALIA

The first settlers of Burnie literally carved a village out from the rain forests and tea-tree swamps that occupied the area. After mineral deposits were discovered in Tasmania, the town prospered, but its connection to the natural world remained. Spend some time at Fernglade Reserve, one of Burnie's most beautiful places. You'll find this peaceful river valley on the edge of the city refreshing, and the walking paths are lined with more than a dozen species of native orchids. Another highlight is Emu Valley Rhododendron Garden. Surrounded by native bushland and wildlife, this beautiful garden is one of the only known places where rhododendrons can be grown in the same garden.

MT. POTTS HIGH COUNTRY STATION
FROM CHRISTCHURCH, NEW ZEALAND

JOURNEY TO MIDDLE EARTH

CHRISTCHURCH, NEW ZEALAND

Christchurch is a vibrant metropolis with a thriving tech sector, three world-class universities, daring street art and blooming gardens. But it's the city's backdrop of the Southern Alps that will most likely speak volumes to bibliophiles and movie fans. Leaving Lyttelton, arrive at remote and beautiful Mt. Potts High Country Station. The moment you set eyes on this location you'll understand why it was chosen as the setting of Edoras in the epic Lord of the Rings trilogy. Even if you're not a Tolkien aficionado, you'll be left breathless by the unspoiled beauty of this landscape of rugged mountain ranges, sparkling lakes, blue rivers and brisk alpine air.

OLD WORLD CHARM & COLOURFUL COASTS

You're walking on weathered cobblestones down winding lanes, past inviting cafes, cosy bistros and fairy-tale 17th- and 18th-century homes with flower beds in every window. French accents blend with smells of strong coffee and fresh bread on the breeze. Quebec City's Old Town is so bursting with preserved French architecture, picture-postcard views of the St. Lawrence River and un certain je ne sais quoi that you begin to plan your next visit as you stroll the boutique-lined Grande-Allée, the Champs-Élysées of Quebec.

All of this le charme français is even better when the coastlines of Canada and New England crackle with autumn colours. Discover guided tours of Acadia National Park, scenic drives to Halifax fishing villages, treks through historic Boston, visits to Bermuda's very un-autumn-like pink beaches, and more.

NEW

ISLE OF EIGHT FLAGS

FERNANDINA BEACH, FLORIDA

Since 1562, Amelia Island has been settled, lost and re-conquered seven times before it finally became a part of the U.S. after the Civil War. From pirates to Prohibition, old Fernandina Beach has a very colourful history. However, these days, the pace is decidedly slower in this picturesque little beach town. If you're looking to venture a little further into the wilderness, drive to nearby St. Marys, Georgia, where you can catch a ferry to Cumberland Island National Seashore. There, you can walk undeveloped beaches, wander through maritime forests, and if you're lucky, spot one of the island's feral horses.

ACADIA NATIONAL PARK FROM BAR HARBOR, MAINE

FORTRESS LOUISBOURG
FROM SYDNEY, NOVA SCOTIA

SCENIC AND HISTORIC

SYDNEY, NOVA SCOTIA

Sydney charms the traveller with harbour views along the Boardwalk and at the nearby summer home of Alexander Graham Bell, now an enlightening museum. You will likely be struck by its unusual design, which is based on the tetrahedron form that the inventor used in his flight test kites. Although Bell is renowned for inventing the telephone, he earned 18 patents and collaborated on another 12 for other advancements in medicine and technology. Travel further back in time to the 1700s and discover what life was like at Fortress Louisbourg, a re-creation of a French fort that is so impressive it has become a National Historic Site.

GARDEN OF GLACIERS

BAIE-COMEAU, QUÉBEC

Recognised by UNESCO for the forces that formed its striking landscape — millions of years of glacial erosion, the collision of a huge meteorite and an ancient sea that smoothed the land — Baie-Comeau offers breathtaking vistas from every vantage point within a biosphere reserve in the Côte-Nord region of Quebec. For an up-close look, be sure to visit to the Jardin des Glaciers (Garden of the Glaciers). Enjoy views of another kind by Florentine artist Guido Nincheri at Sainte-Amélie Church, rich with his frescoes and stained glass. After a fresh seafood lunch in the city's heritage district, head to St-Pancrace microbrewery for a local craft beer.

CAPTURE THE PERFECT IMAGE

CORNER BROOK, NEWFOUNDLAND

Corner Brook begs to have its photo taken. Photograph the gorgeous landscape of dense forests, soaring mountains and glacial valleys. The terrain is even more dramatic within Gros Morne National Park. More than just an unspoiled setting, it features such an extraordinary example of continental drift, where deep ocean crust and the earth's rocky mantle lie exposed, that UNESCO has declared it a World Heritage site. Take a selfie with Gros Morne Mountain in the background, a flat-top slice of Arctic tundra far south of its usual range. If you have a long lens, climb the lighthouse at Lobster Cove, a top spot for whale watching.

WHITE SAND UTOPIAS & BEGUILING HISTORY

You've learned to prepare a three-course Mexican meal in Cozumel... Explored the ruins of a Mayan city in Belize... Become an expert in jungle flora on a guided eco-hike in Guatemala. You even learned to dance the merengue in the Dominican Republic. Now here, a glistening strip of pristine beach somewhere in Antigua, your heart and mind feel a bliss as real as the sand between your toes. You gaze upon the horizon with a carefree mind, civilisation's worries and concerns shed like a pair of dime store sandals — lost in tropical tranquillity — the essence of the Caribbean.

Serendipitous opportunities arise to leave your cares behind, like spotting the wonders beneath the surface of Barbados at Harrison's Cave, exploring the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Colonial Zone of Santo Domingo La Romana, people-watching in Cabo San Lucas, browsing the boutiques and art galleries of Old San Juan, passing through a certain canal, and more.

EXOTIC WILDLIFE

PUNTARENAS, COSTA RICA

Go beyond the coasts that follow the country's famous shoreline, on a journey to the interior of Costa Rica. Ride a historical train on a spectacularly scenic route through the picturesque countryside to Orotina, where you will board a boat bound for the biologically rich mangroves that rim the Tarcoles river. The mangroves provide shelter and a breeding ground for all sorts of creatures, including birds such as herons, roseate spoonbills and kingfishers. You may see hummingbirds flitting about and Panama flycatchers mournfully whistling with their distinctive call. Also, spot crocodiles sunning along the banks and iguanas in the branches of the trees that grow right to the river's edge.

CRAYFISH FALLS
FROM POINTE-À-PITRE, GUADELOUPE

CHASING WATERFALLS

POINTE-À-PITRE, GUADELOUPE

Witness the gorgeous cascades of Carbet Waterfalls in Guadeloupe National Park. It is the perfect reward for your hike on a winding path through the forest. Be sure to bring your camera to capture the sight of the 100m middle falls as it thunders through the jungle. The falls have long been admired. They even had a mention in Christopher Columbus' journal in 1493, when the indigenous Caribs referred to Guadeloupe as 'Karukera', meaning 'Island of Beautiful Waters'. If you prefer an easier walk to a waterfall, there's La Cascade aux Écrevisses (Crayfish Falls), where you can bathe under the rushing, crystalline water.

SAN FELIPE FORTRESS
PUERTO PLATA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

ROSEAU, DOMINICA

VERDANT WONDERS & ISLAND HOSPITALITY

ROSEAU, DOMINICA

Vibrant and charming with some of the warmest hospitality in the Caribbean, Roseau is a small town with plenty of colonial character, offering a variety of fun stops like the colourful New Market, where you can enjoy a refreshing coconut drink. Dominica's real beauty lies in its unspoiled natural landscape: the dense rain forests, lush foliage, natural springs, rivers and tall, smouldering peaks. Dominica is home to one of the Caribbean's great natural wonders — the scenic Valley of Desolation — where in a verdant tropical gorge, white mists from bubbling hot springs swirl in the air.

TWO CITIES TO EXPLORE

CORINTO, NICARAGUA

From Corinto, explore the two Leóns — the original city that was buried in volcanic ash, and then a later version, which became an alluring colonial city. Spanish conquistadors founded Old León on Lake Managua, but the site was abandoned in the early 1600s, after volcanic eruptions and an earthquake destroyed it. The site now showcases the excavated ruins of one of the earliest Spanish colonial settlements. At this UNESCO World Heritage site, explore the cathedral, convent, royal foundry and private homes constructed of wood, bamboo and mud. Compare that to the new León and its magnificent León Cathedral, which beautifully illustrates several architectural styles.

AZTEC & MAYAN HERITAGE

SANTO TOMÁS DE CASTILLA, GUATEMALA

A treasure trove of fascinating history and ancient traditions awaits. Learn how indigenous people of Central America have been processing and eating the cacao tree's fruit for at least 2,000 years, including how the Aztecs made a chocolate drink so valued it was reserved for royalty. Visit Quiriguá National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site situated on the plains of the Motagua River. The longest river in the country, the Motagua was used by the Maya and served as one of their most important waterways. Once a magnificent Mayan city, Quiriguá is now an impressive archaeological site of the early Classic Period, with ruins that date from as far back as 200 CE.

COCKTAILS & PALM TREES

TORTOLA, BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS

Cruise over to White Bay on nearby Jost Van Dyke, the ultimate beach paradise for sunbathing and simply relaxing. Along the way, you'll pass several classic Caribbean islands, including St. John in the U.S. Virgin Islands. When you arrive at White Bay, your adventure in paradise begins in earnest, as you'll plunge into the crystal-clear water to get to the sugar-white shore. Spend the day lounging in a hammock strung between two palm trees, sunbathing or swimming. There's a reef at the bay's western edge that's usually teeming with blue tangs, rainbow parrot fish and other marine life. Later, enjoy a cool drink at the Soggy Dollar Bar, where the famous Painkiller cocktail was invented in the 1970s.

SPIRIT OF ROME & WORLD TREASURES

You come to 'the Eternal City' with a list of must-sees, but it disappears as quickly as suppli (fried rice balls) eaten on a sidewalk as you wrap your head around the dolce vita of Rome. Heading off, you find yourself atop the Spanish Steps, happy throngs below, ancient streetscapes in every direction. You descend the 135 steps, from the Trinità dei Monti church to the Piazza di Spagna, just as people of every persuasion have done for almost 300 years. A mix of exhilaration and release envelops you as you depart the piazza, happy to let the spirit of Rome take the reins.

You'll find similar enchantment throughout the Mediterranean. Savour the origins of Ottoman cuisine in Istanbul, explore medieval Catalonia in northern Spain, go on enlightening tours of the Holy Land, and more.

HEAR THE ROAR

ROME, ITALY

The top two levels of the 52m-high Colosseum offer priceless views of the stadium, as well as the nearby Roman Forum, Palatine Hill and the rest of Rome. For the first time in 40 years, the newly restored fourth and fifth levels are open to the public. As of recent years, you may also go beneath the Colosseum to see a network of subterranean passageways once used to transport wild animals and gladiators to the arena. Before concluding your tour, be sure to visit the museum dedicated to Eros located in the upper floor of the outer wall of the building.

REVERED RUINS

IZMIR, TURKEY

From Izmir, journey through fertile plains to Pergamum, a UNESCO World Heritage site settled by one civilisation after another, beginning in the 3rd century BCE. Tour the remains of the city's library, which contained 200,000 volumes and put Pergamum on par with Alexandria as a cultural centre of the Roman Empire. Walk around the acropolis atop a steep hill and realise the city was built to be an inaccessible fortress. Equally awe-inspiring are the ruins of 10,000-seat theatre built into the hillside, the temples of Trajan and Dionysus, the Altar of Zeus, the Sanctuary of Demeter, and the agora.

ATHENS, GREECE

The Acropolis is one of the greatest travel destinations, not only in Greece, but in the world. It's home to the remnants of the sacred temple to Athena, the patron goddess of the city. Once you climb the Acropolis, there's a wealth of ancient temples, theatres and other attractions nearby, as well as the stunning view of the city. For a bit of modernity, spend time at the new Acropolis Museum, built to house the archaeological remains of the Acropolis. During construction, they found ancient ruins of an entire settlement, dating back to 5 BCE. Now you can look down through special glass flooring and see archeologists at work.

The volcanic island of Patmos is one of the most fascinating of the Dodecanese Islands. While its landscape is unique, what will captivate you is its inclusion in the catalogue of Monuments of World Heritage of UNESCO. Patmos has been included in this catalogue since 1999, because of the Monastery of St. John and the Sacred Cave of the Apocalypse. At the chapel, you can view Saint John's relics, rare icons, chalices and vestments, as well as ancient manuscripts.

SAVOUR LAND & SEA CINQUE TERRE, ITALY

In Cinque Terre, delight in breathtaking views of villages that comprise this extraordinary area that has been deemed a UNESCO protected territory. Then, pair the sights with exquisite delights. The Gulf of La Spezia is famous for growing mussels and for preparing them in a truly unique way: stuffed. The mussels are opened, the meat is split, and a savoury spoonful of stuffing made of cheese, herbs, breadcrumbs and ground mussels is placed in the shell and then simmered in tomato sauce. Cinque Terre's namesake white wine pairs perfectly with the mussels and the rest of the delicious seafood of the region.

STUNNING DISCOVERIES

VOLOS, GREECE

Modern Volos is built in the region of the ancient cities of Demetrias, Pagasae and Iolkos. To the west of Volos, there are the Neolithic settlements of Dimini, with a ruined acropolis, and Sesklo, with the remains of the oldest acropolis in Greece (6,000 BCE), as well as examples of Neolithic civilisations. Makrinitza, whose multi-storied houses cling to the hillside, is a stunning village with views so lovely it's nicknamed, 'The Balcony of Pelion'. This is a lovely place to wander the cobbled streets, relax in the shade of the main square and spend a few reflective moments admiring the frescoes in the church of Agios Ioannis.

FIT FOR A GOD

SYROS, GREECE

Syros is a picturesque rocky Greek island filled with unexpected treasures and tastes. Greek god of commerce Hermes would be proud of the capital Ermoupoli, 'The City of Hermes', named in his honour. Its former grandeur still illuminates with impressive neoclassical architecture lining streets paved with marble in the Old Town. Museums highlight the area's past well and include the Archaeological Museum, the Gallery of Cycladic Art and the informative Industrial Museum. There is also a magnificent town hall and many appealing cafes on beautiful Plateia Miaouli, as well as the amazing Apollon Theatre, built to imitate Italy's La Scala, and the alluring mansions in Vaporia.

PRINCIPALITY OF MONACO

ALL THAT GLITTERS IS GOLD

MONTE CARLO, MONACO

Fast cars, glamorous evening wear and Bond, James Bond. Monte Carlo has a reputation for a jet-setting lifestyle against a backdrop of glorious medieval history. This deeply layered character is uncovered on a stroll through iconic Old Town and viewed at Prince's Palace, the Grimaldi stronghold. The inherent sense of tradition may be appreciated when watching the midday Changing of the Guard, during an exploration of cathedrals and nearby villages, or taking in a dramatic opera. For those who like to challenge Lady Luck, the extravagant casino complex beckons.

PALERMO, ITALY

SICILIAN STREET MARKETS

PALERMO, ITALY

Sicilian street markets are a cacophony of sights and sounds. From a colourful assortment of fruits, vegetables, fish and meats to vendors barking about bargains for anybody who will listen. This is a wonderful way to immerse yourself in the local culture. Palermo offers three to choose from: Vucciria, Capo and Ballarò. The latter is the largest, liveliest and surely the most picturesque of Sicily. Its name, Ballarò, has ancient Arab origins, and as you walk through the outdoor shops and stands, you will appreciate its similarity to a souk. While here, be sure to taste some of the delicious street food, such as sfincione and panelle.

FRAGRANT & DELECTABLE

BODRUM, TURKEY

A dynamic city with a fascinating culture, Bodrum resonates with energy. To get a feel for the people, walk through Old Town, savour mouth-watering street food and sample an array of decadent sweets. Bargaining is a way of life, so brush up on your negotiating skills before you take part in this practice. In addition to taking home interesting purchases, you'll be able to share some anecdotes about the interactions. One of Bodrum's highlights is the Castle of St. Peter. Built by the Knights Templar, it later came under Ottoman rule, and now houses the Underwater Archaeological Museum, a treasure trove of valuable underwater artefacts and shipwrecks.

MACHU PICCHU & OTHER LATIN WONDERS

You approach a clearing along a solid dirt and slate-stone trail, jungle brush giving way to fortified hillside. As with all of life's great moments, the anticipation welling up within you is well-earned. Getting to Machu Picchu doesn't just happen — you've committed yourself to this once-in-a-lifetime experience. And here you are. And there it is. Laid out before you, the mist-shrouded, sprawling, 15th-century citadel lost for centuries, a phenomenal human achievement that continues to baffle Inca scholars. You've read so many accounts of this moment from travellers who've claimed the stunning ruins must be seen to be believed. And now, your whole heart agrees.

After the obligatory Machu Picchu selfies, South America beckons with multiple wonders. Discover the opportunity to encounter the nearly 61m high wall of blue ice awaiting in Laguna San Rafael, views of Rio de Janeiro's Christ the Redeemer statue, tango lessons in Buenos Aires, and more.

BRILLIANT BEACHES

BÚZIOS, BRAZIL

The tiny fishing village of Búzios, just 169km from Rio de Janeiro, is considered one of the most beautiful spots in the world. Búzios gained instant international fame after Brigitte Bardot spent time here in the 1960s. Her visit was so influential that the townspeople erected a statue of the French actress sitting on a suitcase gazing out to sea. As Bardot attested, the real draw of Búzios is its beaches. There are plenty of places to choose to lay down your towel for a perfect day of bathing and tanning. For a different perspective, you can also enjoy a relaxing Bahian-style schooner cruise along the pristine islands.

ISLA DE LOBOS
PUNTA DEL ESTE, URUGUAY

LAND OF LIONS

PUNTA DEL ESTE, URUGUAY

As you stroll through town, you'll find the cultural side of Punta del Este at its museums and architecturally rich neighbourhoods. In this part of the world, you're also never too far from extraordinary wildlife encounters. Visit Isla de Lobos and catch sight of one of the largest colonies of sea lions on Earth. South American sea lions are highly social. You can expect them to be frolicking in the water, feeding on fish, drying off on rocky outcrops and interacting with each other. Although their numbers were once in decline, the sea lions on Sea Wolves Island are protected and the colony is thriving.

TAPAJOS NATIONAL FOREST

SANTARÉM, BRAZIL

Trek through a swathe of unspoiled Amazon rainforest today, under the expert guidance of a naturalist. Tapajos National Forest is an eden, an hour from Santarém. This bird-watcher's dream boasts approximately 300 bird species, including the giant harpy eagle and golden parakeet. Bright colours and distinctive calls are part of the display, and dappled sunlight falls on a leafy forest floor. Fascinating leaf ants and ghost moths reveal their odd camouflaging and tortoises, sloths and anteaters may be spotted under the canopy.

WHERE WATERS MEET
MANAUS, BRAZIL

The 'Meeting of the Waters' on the Amazon River occurs about eight miles from Manaus, when the 'white' Rio Solimões meets the 'black' Rio Negro. The Amazon River is formed at the point these two rivers join together. As you cruise along, you can see that their density is so different that they will not mix for several miles. Back on shore, treat your palate to flavours that do blend well. Brazilians use fruits and berries in many ways, especially the famed açaí, from juices to flavourings for ice cream, which you can sample at bustling food markets in the larger villages.

PAPAGAIO ISLAND
FROM CABO FRIO, BRAZIL

FORESTED ISLAND

CABO FRIO, BRAZIL

This lovely port offers an array of beaches to choose from. Many publications have deemed Cabo Frio to be home to Brazil's best shores. Among them is Papagaio Island, a heavily forested island just off the coast. The pristine waters and beach here are only accessible by boat, adding to its mystique. Its rocky coastline is steep with its dominant features being the abundance of deep crevices, gorges and seaside caves. Papagaio is the Portuguese word for parrots, a reference to the colourful tropical birds that inhabit the island's rainforest, which is a natural reserve. Whether you swim, dive or sunbathe, the tropical ambience is worth the journey.

BLUE LAGOON
ILHA GRANDE, BRAZIL

SNORKEL HEAVEN

ILHA GRANDE, BRAZIL

The marine-rich waters make ideal conditions for snorkelling. For the ultimate underwater swim, take a schooner out to Ilha Grande's most idyllic snorkelling spot, the Blue Lagoon. This beautiful body of water is known for its brilliant colour and astounding clarity. The entire island is protected environmentally, so nature reigns supreme. The waters are typically calm and shallow, making the lagoon ideal for snorkelling. Countless species of tropical fish thrive here, and you may also see sea turtles, starfish and sea horses. Dolphins also frequent the lagoon, and it's a real treat to see them playfully zipping through the sea. The setting couldn't be more inviting.

ITAJAÍ, BRAZIL

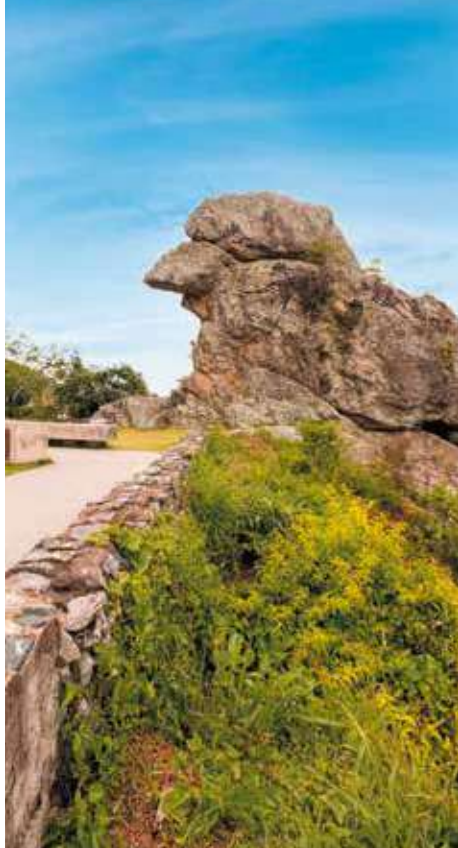

Sitting at the mouth of the scenic Rio Itajaí, this cosmopolitan city between São Paulo and the Uruguayan border offers a culture-rich respite from the frenetic pace of Brazil's larger cities. Past the shops, bars and restaurants of the bustling port, stop into the eclectic Itajaí Historical Museum for post-colonial artefacts and Ethno-Archaeological Museum for local prehistoric finds. An influx of 19th-century German immigrants provides a modern-day bonanza of wineries and breweries. The white sands of Atalaia Beach beckon, as does snapping a photo of an iconic cliff formation called Parrot's Beak, so don't forget your camera!

PACIFIC PEARL

PAPEETE, FRENCH POLYNESIA

Filled with scenic vistas, majestic waterfalls, secluded lagoons and welcoming people, there is plenty to do in Papeete — and there's also plenty to taste. Stroll the indoor market, Marché de Papeete, and sample the local cuisine, especially the traditional poisson cru and dessert of poe made from the root vegetable taro, and sweetened with coconut milk and bananas. With your appetite satiated, treat yourself to even more indulgences by shopping for coveted Tahitian pearls. These luminous orbs, grown on pearl farms located in the lagoons across French Polynesia, may be known as 'black pearls', but they come in shades that range from grey-blue and dusky purple to peacock green and brilliant bronze.

HERE'S LOOKING AT YOU

CASABLANCA, MOROCCO

While we may associate Casablanca with Rick saying a final, "Here's looking at you, kid," to Ilsa, the present-day centre of Morocco is where old meets new. Over the centuries, Casablanca has been conquered, destroyed, rebuilt, abandoned and rebuilt again, leaving a cosmopolitan city of wide avenues and towering skyscrapers imbued with European-style sophistication. During your visit, spend time at the nearly 213m-high minaret of Hassan II Mosque jutting over the Atlantic, its massive interior a glittering showcase of Moroccan artisanship. Explore the souks, churches and mosques of the enchanting Habous District. For foodies, the aromas, colours and tastes of the Central Market will dazzle.

MINDELO, CAPE VERDE

WHERE MUSIC LIVES

MINDELO, CAPE VERDE

Nestled in a bay ringed by mountains, Mindelo is the pride and joy of the island of São Vicente. Delight in a scene that is enlivened by music that is certain to move you. Visit the new Floating Music Hub, a project by the visionary architect and designer Kunlé Adeyemi, for some auditory indulgence. This cultural experience consists of three separate but linked timber pavilions consisting of a recording studio, a bar and a multi-use performance space to spotlight African music, dance and art. It's an idyllic venue to experience live performances of the Cape Verdean morna, a genre made famous by the late Cesária Évora, a legendary singer.
